ABPN Grant Allows Diplomates Complimentary Access to the American Psychiatric Association (APA) Spring Highlights Meeting 2020 (updated June 1, 2020)

The American Psychiatric Association (APA) and the ABPN have collaborated, through an unrestricted educational grant from the ABPN, to provide diplomates with complimentary programming to satisfy ABPN Continuing Medical Education (CME) and Self-Assessment CME activity requirements.

ABPN diplomates have complimentary access to:

- Recordings and slide downloads for all presentations given at the APA's Spring Highlights Meeting 2020, a virtual event held April 25-26, 2020.
- Focus LIVE! upcoming webinars, which are live and interactive sessions covering important topics in psychiatry.
- APA's 2020 Annual Meeting Self-Assessment activity, to earn up to eight hours of MOC Part II credit.
- CME credit and access to select articles included in ABPN's MOC Part III journal-based pilot project. Click here to learn more.

Registration is required to receive CME and MOC credit.

ABPN Grant for AAN 2019 Meeting Programming Allows Diplomates Complimentary Access

ABPN Makes Donation to #GetUsPPE Initiative

ABPN has made a donation to #GetUsPPE, a coalition working to build a national, centralized platform to enable communities to get PPE to healthcare providers on the frontlines of the COVID-19 pandemic. The monetary donation helps fund protective equipment purchases and delivery to healthcare workers in need. To learn more or to donate, go to getusppe.org.
